COUNCILLOR WILL NOT BE SILENCED

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@tindlenews.co.uk

A HONITON town councillor says he will "not be silenced" after the town council submitted its application to turn a green space in Honiton into an allotment site.

As previously reported in this newspaper, Honiton Town Council has submitted an application to create 46 allotments and a five space car park on land close to Honiton Bottom Road.

Councillor Mike Allen, who represents the St Michael's Ward, is now calling for the allotments application to be changed.

Speaking to Pulman's View he said: "This has been going on since before I was a councillor. The allotments planning application revealed that some councillors had been in negotiation with East Devon District Council since 2006, this was never declared.

"I am not against the allotments application, in fact it is quite the reverse. I just think it needs to be in a different location. You could move it across the road and everybody would be happy. Even the proposed allotment holders that I have spoken to would be happy with this but it doesn't seem like the town council is listening.

"Basically I have had a real fall-out with the town council. When you look at the allotments application it is seriously flawed. Not in concept but in its design.

"The application contains many errors and discrepancies. For example, the access [to the proposed allotment site] is incorrectly described."

Councillors held a meeting last Tuesday evening to discuss the application and Mr Allen also claims that councillors were not given enough time to produce papers and documents to be presented at that meeting.

He said: "I noted that since notification of the meeting on Tuesday, July 6th, only arrived on Thursday, July 1st, I was unable to give five days' notice of any papers to be presented at the meeting.

"Members of the public are allowed to place questions and present papers with only a few hours' notice, while council members must present them to the town clerk five working days prior, which was impossible with regard to this meeting on July 6th."

Following the meeting a spokesman for Honiton Town Council said: "Councillor Allen expressed concern that the town council has submitted an erroneous planning application. Councillor Allen's comment was noted and officers will reply in due course."

A period of public consultation is now underway.

EDDC withdraws Mansell legal case

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

EAST Devon District Council (EDDC) has withdrawn its 30 month legal case against Mansell Raceway Ltd less than a week before the start of a 10-day appeal hearing at Exeter Crown Court.

The news has been welcomed by former Formula One world champion Nigel Mansell and his sons Leo and Greg who run and operate Mansell Raceway Ltd at Dunkeswell.

The appeal at Exeter Crown Court was due to begin as this newspaper went to press yesterday.

The case was lodged by EDDC to challenge a ruling by district judge Paul Farmer who quashed a noise abatement order served by the district council's environmental health team following complaints from neighbours.

The district judge ruled there was no noise nuisance following a six day hearing at Honiton Magistrates' Court in November 2008.

Speaking to Pulman's View from his home in Jersey, where he is recovering from a 200mph crash in Le Mans last month, Nigel Mansell said: "I am relieved that EDDC has finally seen sense and that this very expensive and wholly unnecessary legal battle has now ended."

In a planning settlement with the district council, which was finalised last week, Mansell Raceway Ltd has agreed to closely monitor and record noise levels at the track, not to use a number of two-stroke kart race training Saturdays and introduce noise testing for all new leisure karts.

Bryan Holmes, spokesman for Mansell Raceway Ltd, added: "We hope these measures will go a long way towards satisfying our neighbours about our current and future use of the raceway."

"Dunkeswell Kart Racing Club provides an important, safe and well managed facility for young people who want to become involved in motor sport and we sincerely hope to continue to offer them this opportunity for many years to come."

Mervyn Rundle, of Solicitors Title, acting for Mansell Raceway and Dunkeswell Kart Club, said: "Karting will continue at Dunkeswell as it has done for the past 50 years. The district judge's decision that there is no statutory nuisance will stand as law."

Paul Diviani, chair of EDDC's development management committee, said: "There is no ideal solution to a situation such as this, because the interests of the circuit and the residents are so far apart."

"To some extent, the council is between a rock and a hard place, because we want to help our residents but we have to act fairly towards the karting fraternity, who have been using this site for several decades."

"The raceway and the kart club have entered into contractually binding obligations as a result of signing a Section 106 agreement which ensures the periods of respite so sought after by the local residents."

"The council has taken the measured decision that this arrangement would be better in the long term when balanced against the possible risk of a worse outcome had the matter been ruled upon by the court."

Barn blaze

DEVON and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service says that last week's barn fire in Ottery was started deliberately.

Devon and Cornwall Police was not able to confirm this at the time of going to press, though.

The fire broke out at a barn at Barrack Farm in the evening of Wednesday, July 7th.

Fire appliances from Ottery St Mary, Exeter and Honiton were despatched.

Additional units from Exeter and Torquay were also requested to attend.

The fire and rescue service presence at the scene was gradually scaled down, but some units remained the following morning.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said on last Friday afternoon that the cause of the fire had not been established.

On Monday morning, though, the fire and rescue service listed the cause as deliberate, which police were unable to confirm at the time of this newspaper going to press.

Charity challenge for retiring officer

A WEST Hill resident will take on a challenging charity stunt only a few weeks after retiring.

Colin Terry is about to say goodbye to his career with the police after 30 years.

He is set to retire from Devon and Cornwall Police in August, but will have very little time to relax as he is off to India in early September to raise money for charity.

He will be joined by a good friend of his, a Worcester-based firefighter named Clive Symonds, and they will drive a motorised rickshaw along a 4,000 kilometre or so long route.

Mr Terry expects it to be a "back to basics trip" as they will spend many nights in a tent on the roadside.

The Dame Vera Lynn Trust, which helps Children with Cerebral Palsy, will benefit from Colin and Clive's efforts.

They will start in Chennai on the east coast and follow a diamond-shaped route that will take them through Agra, Mumbai, Goa and back to Chennai.

Both recently celebrated their 50th birthdays, which is one reason for undertaking the challenge.

Colin said: "We promised to do something for our 40th birthdays but both were too busy with work."

They fly out to India on September 1st or 2nd and should return during the last week of that month if everything goes according to plan.

Colin is in the process of organising a collection and donation facility for those wishing to sponsor him and Clive.

Oil spillage stops traffic

A TWO car crash on the A35 outside Wilton caused traffic chaos on Monday, July 5th.

According to police reports the accident took place just after 8.15am half-way between Wilton and Shute.

The collision involved a blue Vauxhall Frontera and a black Peugeot 206.

Police say that there were no serious injuries but one of the drivers was taken to the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital as a precaution.

At the time of writing it was unclear which of the motorists was taken to hospital.

The road was closed because of a slight oil spillage.

A 60s event raises £600

Event organiser John Rolph said the evening had been a huge success with everyone dancing and enjoying music from the 1960s to the present day.

Extra hours are not permanent, says train firm

By ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@indienews.co.uk

RECENT extra opening hours at Axminster Railway Station's ticket office will not become a permanent feature.

South West Trains (SWT) says that Axminster is not on a list of stations for which extended hours are proposed.

This comes despite the fact that the ticket office has been trading beyond listed hours recently — to the apparent delight of passengers.

The opening hours were dramatically slashed as part of a network-wide initiative last year.

But there were hopes that the opening of the railway loop at Axminster in December last year would lead to increased opening hours of the station ticket office.

As previously reported, SWT MD Andy Pitt attended the official loop opening in Axminster in December and then told Pulman's View there were no immediate plans to increase Axminster ticket office hours.

But passengers found the ticket office trading the following Sunday despite a sign on the door saying the office is closed on Sundays.

Pulman's View sought clarification at the time and was told that a trial was underway to gauge demand for increased ticket office opening hours.

There was no further communication from SWT until one of its station managers was a guest speaker at an Axminster club recently.

He was reported to have said that the aim is to have the office open seven days a week sometime in the future.

But SWT promptly issued a statement the week before last to say: "We have conducted a full review of our ticket office opening hours and have proposals in place to change the opening hours at a number of our station ticket offices."

"These proposals, which we are currently in liaison with the Department for Transport over, do not include any changes to the opening hours of the ticket office at Axminster."

"The ticket office at Axminster will continue to be manned Monday to Friday from 6.15am to 5pm and on Saturdays from 7.15am to 1.05pm and we currently have no plans in place to extend or change these hours."

But the ticket office was, indeed, trading the following Sunday and passengers appeared to be pleasantly surprised.

The ticket office was closed a week later on Sunday, July 11th, but was open beyond listed hours the day before, although it is not known for how long.

SWT issued a new statement on Monday, July 12th morning, repeating the previous message that there would be no extended hours.

Rather ominously, some might say, the spokesperson concluded: "However, it has been brought to our attention that the ticket office was open for part of the day on Sunday, July 4th, outside of the normal scheduled opening hours."

"This will be discussed and dealt with by the local management team."

Carers can reap benefits of group

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findlenews.co.uk

A MAN from Ottery St Mary reaped both financial and health benefits when joining a group for carers.

Jim Hanson cares full time for his wife, who has rheumatoid arthritis, and says he is very happy to have accepted a free health check.

He contacted his local carers group a while ago and was invited to a meeting.

This proved to be a good move as Jim discovered that he and his wife were entitled to a reduction in their council tax because she is in a wheelchair.

And he was also told about a free health and wellbeing check available at his local GP surgery because he is a carer.

Jim didn't have any health concerns but decided to take up the offer of a health check.

He explained: "It came as a big surprise when they found my blood pressure was sky high and I was at risk of a heart attack or stroke.

"Now I am on new medication and being closely monitored, thank heavens.

"I applaud the scheme and cannot praise highly enough my GP and the nurses at Coleridge Medical Centre.

"I'm really glad that I went along for the health check and I would urge anyone who cares for a friend or relative to go along for a check too."

The health and wellbeing checks are part of a campaign to support carers in Devon by Devon County Council and NHS Devon.

The hour-long checks assess physical, mental and emotional health, including, where appropriate, a vascular check which predicts the risk of developing problems such as heart disease.

Devon is on target to provide checks for 4,000 carers by the end of March 2011.

County councillor Stuart Barker said: "So often people don't think of themselves as a carer, even though they spend a lot of their time caring for a relative or close friend.

"They often consider their own health as less important as the health of the person they are caring for, even though their good health is essential to the support they are able to give."

Rebecca Harriott, deputy chief executive of NHS Devon, added: "This is an opportunity for carers to spend time thinking about their own health and wellbeing and to make themselves known to their GP practice.

"This programme is raising general awareness about the needs of carers and enabling people that have not previously come forward for support to be helped."

Checks are available at 43 GP practices and pharmacies plus through local health and social care teams in Barnstaple and Exmouth.

Current locations include Exeter, Exmouth, Budleigh Salterton, Seaton, Ottery St Mary, Honiton, Cullompton, Barnstaple, Bideford, Holsworthy, Buckfastleigh, Ashburton, Dartmouth, Bovey Tracey, Teignmouth, and Chudleigh.

A list showing where the health and wellbeing checks are available is kept constantly updated on Devon County Council's website — which can be found at www.devon.gov.uk/carershealthandwellbeingchecks.

Male owns up to crimes

AN 18-year-old man from Seaton has owned up to damaging three shop windows in central Axminster.

The damage was done overnight between Friday, July 2nd and Saturday, July 3rd.

Axminster police said the man went to the affected premises a short period of time later to apologise and offer payment.

As a result, he is likely to be dealt with by what is known as restorative justice. The man gets credit for coming forward and paying for the damage, and escapes with a police warning as a result.

Police stressed, however, that the restorative justice route can only be used once. Should the man re-offend, he will be dealt with by "normal procedures".

Nominations

THE Rotary Club of Axminster is inviting nominations for two annual awards, the Bill Knapman Community Award and the Les Knight Youth Award.

Members of the public are encouraged to make nominations and John Hewson of The Rotary Club of Axminster said: "Do you know of anyone who is deserving of an award for the work they have done for the benefit of the community or whose work has benefitted the youth of Axminster and the surrounding area?"

"If you do know of such a person please put their name forward in writing by Monday, July 19th."

Nominations should be sent to: Malcom Reynolds, Willhay Cottage, Willhay Lane, Axminster, EX13 5RW.

Meeting room filled

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@tindlenews.co.uk

IT was standing room only for latecomers at a meeting to discuss the proposed development of 50 houses in Eastfield, West Hill, on Monday, June 28th.

Dozens of residents spoke out against the proposal although some were in favour of the Blue Cedar Homes Ltd development.

One of the first people to speak was Eileen Perkins, planning co-ordinator for the West Hill Residents' Association.

She said: "At a public meeting in February this development was opposed."

"Although it must be said that a considerable number of West Hill residents have expressed a desire to downsize but there are currently no properties available for this."

"And, there are people who want to live in West Hill because it is close to where they work but at the minute they can't afford to live here."

Ruth Scott-Freer, of Eastfield, said: "This proposal will turn a lovely rural green field into an overcrowded development the likes of which we have not seen in West Hill."

"The volume of traffic that would come with this proposed development would create a dangerous situation. The whole area would become hazardous for drivers and pedestrians alike."

"The immense stress of this proposal is already affecting the health and wellbeing of some residents in Eastfield. I strongly object."

David Evans, of Eastfield, urged councillors to listen to the comments made by West Hill residents.

He said: "Please consider what the people of West Hill think. Don't assume you know what we want and listen to what we don't want."

Donna Cooper, of Eastfield, was concerned about the environmental impact of the development.

She said: "According to the Devon Biodiversity Records Centre the site at Eastfield is home to the common newt, adder and roe deer. The proposed development would destroy seven acres of precious habitat."

Robert Neil moved to West Hill in 1969 and urged residents to re-read the village decision statement.

He added: "I would like to see a decision that will not destroy what we have worked so hard to achieve."

Brett Gregson, of Eastfield, said he was concerned about flooding issues and likened the offer of a new building for the primary school, that is included in the development, to a bribe.

He said: "I have two main concerns. It only takes three hours of rain and then I have standing water in my garden."

"I have serious concerns. The developers have offered an outright bribe in an attempt to completely go against the already set boundaries in the village."

Claire Wright, Ottery town councillor for the West Hill ward, declared an interest in the matter and spoke before the council went into debate.

She said: "I have a huge number of concerns."

"My parents live in Eastfield. The access to the site is completely inappropriate and Eastfield residents are worried that the road could turn into a car park at school drop-off times.

◆ THE proposed site for 50 homes at Eastfield in West Hill

decide where the village boundary lies."

Kids triumph in staff tournament

By ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@tindlenews.co.uk

A SCHOOL football team triumphed in a tournament but was beaten by a staff side at All Saints Primary School.

A World Cup-themed day was organised on Thursday, July 1st and saw a tournament each for Key Stage 1 and Key Stage 2.

Pupils formed teams named after countries represented in the World Cup and Portugal clinched the Key Stage 1 title whilst Brazil claimed the Key Stage 2 trophy.

Brazil went on to play a staff team but suffered a 2-1 reverse.

When not playing football, pupils made flags, learnt national anthems and engaged in arts and crafts activities related to the countries involved.

Local Cystic Fibrosis Trust gets busy hosting fundraisers

THE Honiton branch of the Cystic Fibrosis Trust is gearing up for a busy few weeks and has announced a host of fundraising events.

On Saturday, July 10th the group had a stall in the Lace Walk area of Honiton with items such as new and nearly new ladies shoes, bric-a-brac and a selection of jewellery and clothing.

On Saturday, July 24th the group will have a table at Honiton Charter Day.

Fundraising concerts have been planned on Saturday, July 31st and Saturday, August 14th.

The first concert takes place at Beer Congregational Church and this will be followed by a concert at Ottery St Mary Parish Church. Both events start at 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £7.50 for each show or £12 for both shows.

Tickets are available from the Honiton Tourist Information Centre.

Proceeds from the concerts will be split between the Cystic Fibrosis

Trust and the Beer Wurlitzer Refurbishment Fund.

A spokesman for the Honiton Cystic Fibrosis Trust said: "Through your support last year we sent in excess of £4,000 to ensure that the ground breaking work can continue."

"The success of this research would mean that whatever Cystic Fibrosis gene mutation someone has, when this healthy copy is added to their lungs it will control the lung disease which claims 90 per cent of those with Cystic Fibrosis."

Public invited to hub event

AN open day is set to be held at a community project in Ottery St Mary on Sunday, July 18th.

The Otter Valley Harvest Hub will be opening its doors from 11am until 2pm and a host of events has been planned by the organisers.

Harvest hub director, Justin Vernon, said: "We had a wonderful response to our last event and we're expecting a similar turnout for this weekend. With excellent weather this summer, the garden is looking fantastic and visitors will be able to see just how productive an area the kitchen garden is at this time of year.

"Our hands-on activity will be to create a couple of Ugandan Bag Gardens which shows one of the ways in which families in Uganda recycle resources and grow crops in small areas."

Project co-ordinator, Phil Foggitt, added: "For many people, the ideal of growing their own food is difficult to achieve because of other commitments. This open day is an opportunity for everyone wanting to grow their own produce to see what the hub can offer."

A Tesco fair

MORE than 20 stalls will be operational during a community fair outside Tesco's Axminster branch on Sunday July 18th from 11am-4.30pm.

Tesco Axminster community champion Kath Rabjohns said that 12 local and national charities will have stalls whilst local and national suppliers will also be present, giving away free samples and literature.

Kath said: "We have entertainment for all ages. The town crier will be opening the fair and the mayor will judge children's competitions."

Council builds six homes in £2 million programme

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indlenews.co.uk

SIX council homes are under construction in the Axminster area as part of a £2 million building programme.

A total of 17 council homes are being built in east Devon, four of them in Wagg's Plot and two in Hea's Field, Axminster.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) has received a grant of just over £1 million from the Homes and Communities Agency (HCA), and is also contributing £1 million from its own coffers towards the project.

The six properties in the Axminster area should be completed in November and will be available for rent.

EDDC staged a media call at the Wagg's Plot site on Thursday, July 8th to celebrate the fact that construction is underway.

Two pairs of two-bedroom, semi-detached houses are being built on a parcel of EDDC land.

All Saints Parish Council chairman Rita Brickill told Pulman's View: "We had a housing needs survey and found that some families in the parish needed homes.

"We hope people in the parish will be housed here."

District councillor Jill Elson was among those who attended.

She commented: "It is many years since the council was in a position to build its own homes and I am delighted that this building programme is now underway.

"Thanks to the funding from the HCA and the further £1 million contribution from EDDC, we are now able to help families move into homes that they can afford."

Colin Molton of the HCA said:

"This development is providing much needed, high quality affordable housing in east Devon as part of our drive to increase provision across the south west.

"All partners have worked hard to bring these new homes to fruition for local people and we can all be very proud of what we have achieved here."

Andrew Howard, who is the MD of contractor R G Spiller Limited, added: "We are delighted to have been awarded the contract for this ground-breaking development and the opportunity to work with EDDC."

Police name crash victim

POLICE have named the man who died when the car he was driving was involved in a collision with a van.

Peter John Neate, 78, of Honiton, sustained serious injuries in the crash that took place on the A30 near Rawridge at about 1.30pm on Tuesday, June 29th.

Mr Neate was taken to the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital where he later died from his injuries.

Police say they are still appealing for witnesses to the collision to contact them on 08452 777 444.

Charter Day art exhibition

AN art exhibition to celebrate Charter Day in Honiton is set to be held at the Boston Tea Party, High Street, Honiton.

The exhibition features works by Sally Boom as well as other local artists and will take place from Saturday, July 24th until Monday, July 26th.

Paintings will be available to purchase and 10 percent of sales will be donated to Honiton Town Council who sponsor the Charter Day events.

Bear's picnic

A TEDDY bear's picnic is set to take place at a Honiton nursery on Saturday, July 17th.

The Folly Nursery, Springfield Road, will be hosting the event and Axminster-based chef Hugh Fearley-Whittingstall will be in attendance.

Admission is free and the picnic runs from 11am until 1pm.

Too simple for some?

EDITOR — Why complicate things in our town of Seaton again with bits and pieces?

We have a perfectly easy one-way system. One-way along Harbour Road and back along the sea front the other way.

It would be so straight-forward, or is that too simple for the powers that be?

Shopkeepers help to make our lovely town a good place to live

EDITOR — Thank you to our shopkeepers.

We first found Seaton in July 1967 and immediately fell in love with it.

It was not only the scenery that attracted us but the friendliness. People greeted you in the street and shopkeepers really wanted to serve you.

We realised that Seaton was the place for our retirement.

We came down from Bristol nearly every weekend, our boys enjoyed walking and swimming.

The grocer and greengrocer, then at the top of Queen Street, put up a weekly order for us. We therefore returned to Bristol ready and refreshed for the working week.

Due to ill-health we moved to Seaton earlier than expected in 1981. My husband was away for part of the working week. Despite the reason for the move we were delighted to be here.

I am pleased to say that the friendliness of our shopkeepers and assistants is still there today.

I feel sure Seaton will survive whatever does eventually get built. We will not be deserting the Co-op where we get friendly and helpful service.

So thank you shopkeepers, you help to make Seaton a good place to live in.

Event goes without a 'hitch'

EDITOR — Axminster Beer, Music and Cider Festival was a phenomenal success due to record numbers, a superb band line up and fabulous weather.

The festival is organised by volunteers from the Axminster Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

All proceeds support the Axminster Tourist Information Centre which receives no government or local authority funding.

A very big thank you must go to Shane and Claire Morgan, Duncan Colvin, Sarah Crook and Karen Pethebridge the main organisers and special thanks to our many sponsors.

Grateful thanks to the yellow shirt volunteers and stalwart town councillor Douglas Hull.

I should like to thank my friends international Irish legends The Fureys and Davey Arthur for arranging a special tour of the Westcountry to specifically play at our festival. They gave us an extra long afternoon concert which had the whole audience on its feet shouting for more by the end.

Bridport soul singer Jess Upton with her magnificent voice supported by Marco and Steve got the evening off to the perfect start.

What a wonderful surprise new group Wet Playtime, comprising Chard school teachers and ex-pupils were, fronted by a superb vocalist.

The event just got better and better with an energetic group from Plymouth, The Dancing Bananas, the complete crowd pleasers who got the event roaring.

Local Lyme Regis band Raven, the festival rock favourites from last year, closed a very entertaining evening.

What a magnificent event this was and wholehearted thanks to the superb professionals who helped the day run smoothly — event electrician M.J. Bevis and the vigilant but discreet Exeter based NGS Security.

I am delighted to report that the whole event went without incident.

Thank you Axminster and surrounding districts for supporting our event.

Crazy plans

EDITOR — My concern regards an application of building in Eastfield, West Hill, by Blue Cedar Homes Ltd. The proposition made by the development surveyor is totally crazy and irresponsible.

If planning permission was granted it is almost certain that similar planning applications elsewhere in West Hill would be submitted with the would-be developer citing the Eastfield approvals as an argument in favour of development of their own land.

West Hill is a beautiful woodland village. This project is far too big. The area will become an estate and generate astronomical all-day vehicle movements with Eastfield Road the only entrance and exit to the project. With the noise, pollution, vehicular access in and out and parking problems it will become a living nightmare. I very much hope that common sense will prevail on this absolutely insane proposal.

With Nigel Speller

This week it is the higher levels of the churches that seem to be making the news.

Following word that the coalition government were considering allowing same sex couples to include religious elements in their civil partnership ceremonies there was a swift response from undisclosed Church of England sources saying that such steps would require further consultation.

The Bishop of Exeter, said in a personal statement, that the proposed change to the Equality Bill has opened up an area of unhelpful doubt and confusion.

The Church of England, he added, will not allow the use of any of its buildings for civil partnership registrations.

On the other hand Quakers, Unitarians and the liberal Judaism movement are likely to allow ceremonies in their buildings.

Other likely difficulties appear ahead for the Anglican Communion over the possible appointment of an openly gay cleric as the next Bishop of Southwark.

Comments made are that any appointment which does not meet the teaching of the Church of England would bring to an end any hope of holding the Anglican Communion worldwide together.

People of the churches in Devon may ponder how such matters really concern them, when they have so much to do to maintain their local church life and work.

The Roman Catholic Church in England is not immune from problems, as members will be asked to pay more to finance the State visit of the Pope in a few months' time.

The highlight of the four days will be the beatification of Cardinal Newman, the Victorian convert to Rome at Coton Park, Birmingham, before a crowd of 80,000.

News of the Devon churches' links with the church in Cyprus and the Gulf, is that on Sunday last the Bishop of Cyprus and the Gulf ordained a local Christian to the priesthood, in the Church of St George, Baghdad, which is believed to be the first such event for many years.

The service went ahead despite a major electrical fault which damaged a lot of equipment including the sound and electric piano.

Another ordination, in Kuwait, will follow shortly of the first Chinese ordinand in the Diocese.

So moving to local events, first Branscombe School is holding its monthly service on Tuesday, July 20th at 2.45pm in church.

Parents and younger children are welcome and refreshments will follow.

Then on Saturday, August 7th Branscombe is holding its annual church market for church funds from 10.30am.

St Paul's, Honiton, is holding its very popular Charter Day on Saturday, July 24th when all groups connected with the church will be on hand to entertain or provide information on their work and refreshments will be available all day.

Local churches have services for Sea Sunday this month when the 1.3 million seafarers who play the seas for us are remembered.

At Musbury Church the talk at the service was given by Mike Lock of Aze Vale Conservation Society.

Musbury Church also offers a Songs of Praise Service on Sunday, August 1st starting at 11am.

Choices of hymns to be sung should be put on the list in the church.

From the eastern end of our circulation area at Uplyme and Lyme Regis comes news of an incredible day.

Over 200 people attended the service of baptism, renewal of vows and confirmation that took place on Monmouth Beach led by Bishop Bob and Vicar Gavin on Saturday past.

It was a memorable occasion for everyone. Full details and photos are available at www.uplymechurch.org.uk — do take a look.

Following on from Elisabeth Lynn's comments in last week's report about Axminster Churches Together contribution to the Axe Vale Festival, Ray Hunter reports this week that the Christian Fellowship hosted the prayer meeting on the Monday evening that she shared about.

The one great encouragement from that meeting was that all six of Axminster's churches were represented, and there was an openness and unity together as extemporary prayers were presented to God on behalf of those who had written in the prayer book at the festival.

Together collective faith was added to the individual's faith to touch the heart of God.

In these days of great pressure, what a privilege to come before the one who has created us, to ask for his grace, mercy and healing.

◆ LIZZIE Ricketts and Penny Coplestone at The Little Barn Cafe

Cafe opens in shed

CUSTOMERS stocking up on products at Millers Farm Shop on the outskirts of Axminster may have noticed a new edition to the shopping scene.

The Little Barn Cafe has been up and running since April and managers Penny Coplestone and Lizzie Ricketts are hoping for a busy summer season.

The cafe sells a variety of snacks, light lunches, hot and cold drinks.

Speaking to Pulman's View Penny said: "We decided to open a cafe here because we thought it was one of the few farm shops in the area without any refreshments."

"We approached the family [the Millers] and they allowed us to start a cafe outside the shop."

"To go with the look of Millers

Farm Shop we decided to set-up a cafe in a wooden shed, we did some research on different types of trailers but they were not what we wanted."

According to Penny, coffee is hugely important to the business and only the best will do for the new start-up.

Penny said: "We get all our coffee from the coffee factory at Shute. It is roasted every week and we have a special mixed blend available."

"As well as coffee we sell home made cakes, fresh fruit drinks, milkshakes and the award-winning Otter Valley Ice Cream."

"I have to say a lovely service is provided here at the farm shop and we see ourselves as a fabulous addition to a lovely place where you can shop in a stress free environment."

Although the business has only been open since April, Penny and Lizzie have already received lots of positive feedback from customers.

"Everyone has said we should have done something like this years ago," said Penny.

"It is so good to be part of a family run business. There is lots of free parking available, we have 16 tables undercover and a picnic area with about 18 tables."

"Because of the seating areas we can accommodate small parties."

The pair are also encouraging walking and cycle clubs to stop off at the cafe for refreshments.

The cafe is open from 9am until 5.30pm Monday to Saturday.

Mexico trip worth raising money for, says guide Emma

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findlens.co.uk

AN Axminster Girl Guide says that a visit to Mexico was definitely all it was cracked up to be.

Emma Tristram, 15, was in Mexico for almost two weeks and spent most of the time at a guide centre called Our Cabaña.

Guides from all over the world came to celebrate the guide movement's 100th birthday.

Our Cabaña is one of the four world centres owned by the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts.

It is located in Cuernavaca, aka the city of eternal spring, in the southern part of Mexico.

The centre's aim is to "enable girls and young women to develop their fullest potential as responsible citizens of the world" as part of the WAGGGS mission.

This should not be confused with so-called football wags as WAGGGS stands for World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts.

Emma travelled as part of the Devon Girl Guiding entourage and took part in a variety of activities including craft and game sessions based on Mexican traditions with local people, visits to villages near the centre plus a three-day trip to Mexico City and much more.

In Mexico City she went on a river trip in what is known as a floating garden, which can be described as a colourfully decorated boat.

Emma recalled: "It poured down with rain and the boat started filling up with water."

The problem was solved before it developed into an incident and a good time was had by Emma and her friends.

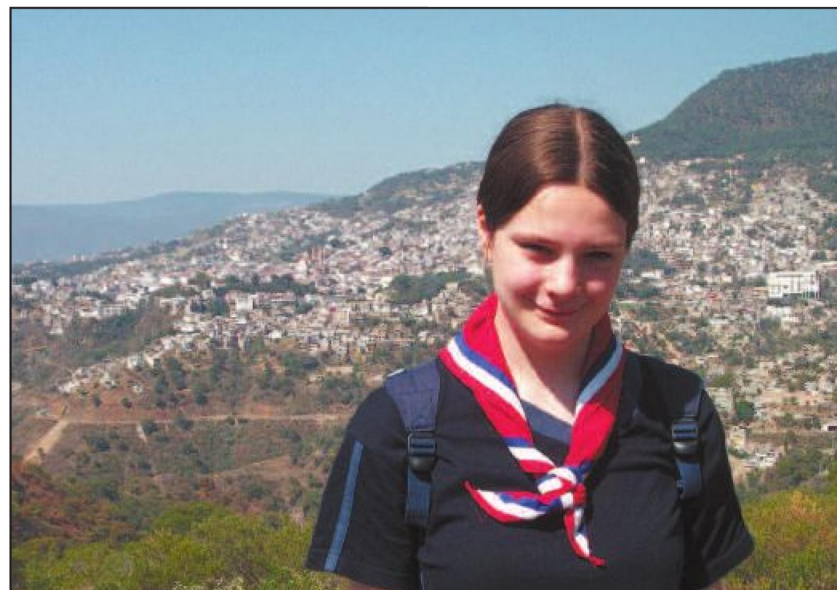

She has been back in the UK for more than two months now, but is still in touch with two Mexican Girl Guides through Facebook.

Her mum, Debbie, describes her daughter as a different person since coming back, saying: "I don't regret letting her go."

"I think she came back a lot more confident."

Emma, whose guiding career started at the age of five when a family friend started a Rainbow group, had to find about £1,500 for her trip through various fundraisers.

It was money well spent and she said: "I'd like to thank all those who helped me raise the money for my trip."

Mower returned after four years

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A RIDE-ON lawn mower is to be reunited with its rightful owner after more than four years.

The mower was stolen from an address in the Chardstock area in April 2006 but has been recovered by Dorset Police following the arrest of suspects who were sought in connection with fuel thefts.

The mower was located in an outbuilding during the investigation and the serial number was crosschecked against the Police National Computer (PNC) database.

This indicated that the mower was 'flagged' as stolen in an area policed by Devon and Cornwall Police.

PC Kevin Bennett of Axminster police was informed and said: "This highlights the value of recording serial numbers from any items of value that you have."

"In this case there were no other viable enquiries and it was only due to the owner having recorded the serial number that we have been able to link it to a crime and also to reunite him with his property."

Cannes film shows Devon countryside

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@tindlenews.co.uk

A NEW film focusing on the Devon countryside has just been produced and has featured at the recent Cannes Film Festival in France.

The film, called Day's Devon, has been produced by Peter Day and will be shown at locations across Pulman's View country.

It will be shown at Woodbury Hall, Axminster, on Friday, August 13th, from 7.30pm and on Saturday, August 14th, at Dalwood Village Hall, from 2pm.

It will also be shown at The Institute, Yonder Street, Ottery St Mary, on Friday, August 20th, from 7pm.

Speaking to Pulman's View Mr Day said: "Day's Devon is an enchanting travel adventure that was shown in part at the Cannes Film Festival. It is a journey through Devon and its history."

"It has 1,000s of images of Devon and much more information and of particular local interest it has the 2010 Stockland Fair and stuff about Axminster and carpets. It is an enjoyable experience."

LUCIE SIMIC

Dropping a hint to the Post Office

WHY can't the Post Office in Honiton take a hint?

There is a constant grumble of dissatisfied customers when you walk into the building and straight into a snaking queue.

Every time that I get home to find a 'we tried to deliver your parcel' note I cringe thinking of the long queue which I will now have to join in order to pick up my parcel.

I know that I should have been home all day waiting patiently but life just doesn't work like that — especially when you have two active little boys and one very demanding husband!

So, it is with a heavy heart that I join the end of the seemingly endless queue and begin waiting with everyone else — on some occasions the queue is out-of-the-door which make for a very unpleasant wait in the colder months — for my parcel.

Now, I can fully understand that the Post Office is busy, there are people trying to conduct all types of business, car tax, airmail, passport applications, banking — and the list goes on — but what I cannot understand is that there only ever seems to be one or two cashier's desks open?

This cannot be enough for a town the size of Honiton, there are plenty of empty windows and surely it couldn't hurt to open one or two more?

Well, I have had a bee in my bonnet about this issue for a while — just ask my colleagues in the office — so when I questioned the Post Office about the issue in November 2009 they informed me that they were currently suffering staff shortages due to sickness.

A little bemused, as it was not just a recent thing, I took their word for it and continued joining the queue along with everyone else.

However, the issue has not got any better. Christmas was a nightmare and things have carried on well into the New Year.

What baffles me is that the Post Office wants to consider closing more rural Post Offices when it is these establishments that they should be celebrating.

For example, if I use the Post Office in Ottery St Mary or Feniton — which I often do, except for when I miss a parcel as it automatically goes back to Honiton — I find there are no queues, pleasant staff and normally a good selection of goods to peruse.

So, why can this service not be replicated in Honiton but on a bigger scale?

Instead of trying to close smaller Post Offices they should encourage more people to use them and concentrate on making sure people get the service they deserve when they go to Honiton.

The number of times that I have stood in the queue listening to people moaning about the service and not getting so much as a 'sorry' when they arrive at the desk is uncountable.

And so, here is my plea; Dear Honiton Post Office, please take on extra staff so that when I have to pick up my parcel I do not have to waste half of my day waiting in a queue — or else I shall be forced to give up my internet shopping, heaven forbid!

Marathon man raises £530 for gymnast's trip

AN Axminster runner has raised more than £500 to help a young gymnast compete on the international stage.

Paul Hampton did the Great West Run half marathon in May and raised £530 to help elite gymnast Douglas Fordyce, who used to live in Wilmingdon, pay for his trip to the 2010 Acrobatic Gymnastics World Championships in Poland this month.

Douglas made headlines in June when he was part of Britain's Got Talent winner

Spelbound.

Paul is a friend of the Fordyce family and said: "The money will help Douglas fund his trip to the world championships in Poland.

"The sport receives no funding from any sporting body so all trips need to be funded entirely by themselves, their families and supporters."

Douglas was unable to attend the cheque presentation as he was elsewhere on Spelbound duty so his father, Richard, collected it for him.

The summer is upon us and we have already experienced a prolonged period of heat with the remaining months set to be hotter...who knows!! At Debonair Dogz we have had a sharp increase of dog owners concerned how their dog is coping with the heat. So what do we do? At Debonair Dogz we specialise in Dog grooming, a necessity for many moulting and non-moulting breeds. Throughout the year the grooming is synchronised with the dogs coat cycle, managing thick coats in the winter and thinning out in the summer. For dogs that are groomed less frequently the natural moulting process may need a helping hand, so we offer various methods to thin and remove excess coat that is not required for this time of the year. For non moulting breeds, hand stripping or clipping the hair to a more manageable length enables the skin to breathe and produce a healthier coat when re-grown. Each procedure is appropriate to the breed of dog and their coat type, so the appearance of the coat is unaffected. When the coat re-grows this provides protection the dog needs throughout the winter, the grooming cycle then continues, managing coats so they don't matt through the winter months.

We also stock natural products to help with minor skin irritations caused by heat or pollen and a range of U.V. protection sprays and creams particularly appropriate for pale pigmented dogs to be used on ear and nose areas. Dogs, like humans suffer from skin cancer and protection is necessary if dogs like to lie in the sun or when they are on their daily walk.

We have also put together a fact sheet on 'Tips to keep your dog cool this summer' This is free and available to pick up in the reception of our salon on the East Devon Business Park situated between Honiton and Wilmington.

If you would like more information on how a groom can help your dog this summer please call us on 01404 831438 and we will be happy to assist you in any way we can. We look forward to welcoming you soon. Debonair Dogz is a member of the 'Pet Care Trust' and the 'British Dog Groomers' Association.

Pair will 'pass like ships' with new restaurant

◆ DUNCAN and Leigh Colvin, of the Old Inn, Kilminster, clearing out the former Swans premises ready for their new venture

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indlenews.co.uk

A HUSBAND and his wife say they will be like ships passing at night after expanding their business interests.

Duncan and Leigh Colvin are the new tenants of premises that used to house Swans in Axminster.

They already run the Old Inn, Kilminster, and the new venture will see them set up a pizzeria and coffee shop in the centre of Axminster.

Their move into the Swans building was somewhat unexpected after initial negotiations in April came to nothing.

But it is now full steam ahead and the new venture, to be called Whitty's to celebrate Axminster's carpet-making heritage, will open during the first week in August.

Duncan and Leigh said that they expect to take on at least three full-time staff and five part-timers.

They will see a lot less of each other as Leigh will concentrate on Whitty's whilst Duncan will look after their pub in Kilminster.

"We will be like ships passing in the night," they said.

TONY JACKSON

The joys of inter-action

ONE of the joys of writing this column is the inter-action with readers. Patricia Stockham, for instance, tells me she has a one-acre garden which is a paradise for wild life, with no poisons, weedkillers or sprays in use for over 50 years.

However, she is now being invaded by half-a-dozen of the dreaded magpies and, as a result, blue tits and hedge sparrows have come under attack and, as she writes, have gone "missing". The answer, I suggest, is a Larsen trap to be used in the spring, and a friendly operator who will attend it. Magpies may be handsome birds, but they are a menace to bird life and need severe control.

Lee Crosthwaite from Honiton tells me that he recently came across a baby hedgehog wandering in the road and obviously distressed. He made contact with a hedgehog sanctuary based in Exmouth to see if they could take it in, but was told that they were inundated with hedgehogs and could barely cope with all those they had. Their advice was to give the little animal cat food and water, but not cow's milk. Sadly, however, the little animal died.

Lee discovered, after further enquiries, that hedgehogs can be fed not only on cat food, but also hard-boiled egg, a few mealworms a day and cooked carrot, peas, sweet potatoes, meats and fruit. The problem for hedgehogs at the moment is that the ground is so dry that their normal diet of earthworms, slugs and snails is not available.

Worms are deep in the earth, and slugs and snails in hiding, so they're going hungry. Incidentally, Lee writes that he watched a hen blackbird fly past with a good sized fledgling held in its claws. However, the bird dropped the chick which was found to be dead. This is, as far as I know, unique behaviour, for the only other bird I know which carries its young is the woodcock. Has any reader heard of, or seen, a blackbird carrying its young?

On the news front, I was delighted to hear that a major attack on Himalayan balsam has been made on the River Tale region by Escot with five volunteers pulling the wretched plant over two days from Danes Mill to Cadhay Bridge. It was noted that bankside vegetation was lush and fish life abundant with shoals of fry, fingerlings and brown trout in good numbers. There were also encouraging signs of water vole activity from Tuck Mill downstream and though four mink rafts were set with traps in May and June, no mink were caught, so perhaps these beastly animals have been eliminated in this area.

It was noted that the balsam seemed to be more abundant this year, but less dense and though normally in flower by this time of the year, scarcely any flowers were seen along the entire stretch of river. Incidentally, it was observed that brown algae covered a great deal of the pebble bed in the water, doubtless due to increased sunlight and lack of scouring from fluctuating water flows and, regrettably, evidence of some granulated fertilizers being spread directly into the river.

Finally, on an intriguing note, I hear that a thresher shark has been seen off Bournemouth. Two anglers were fishing for mackerel half a mile out from Boscombe Pier, when they accidentally caught a young thresher as it snatched a mackerel already hooked.

One angler managed to pull the shark close to the boat, enabling him to see its long tail and to realise what it was. After a few minutes the shark bit through the line and vanished. The thresher is one of 30 species of shark found in British waters, and like most, is suffering a severe decline due to over-fishing world-wide.

It is estimated that millions of sharks are killed each year for their meat, fins and liver oil, while huge numbers are accidentally killed on long-lines set for swordfish and tuna.

Police appeal after a spate of shed thefts

A CHAINSAW and two strimmers were among items taken when three sheds were broken into in the Axminster area.

One break-in happened in Cook's Lane and the other two in Crewkerne Road overnight between Tuesday, July 6th and the following day.

Police have urged householders to write down the serial numbers of their power tools and keep them in a safe place.

Police stressed that, in most cases, the serial numbers are only listed on the appliances and not on packaging or receipts.

If a theft occurs, police can put the serial number on the Police National Computer, which means that recovered property can be reunited with the rightful owner.

A case in point is a lawn mower that was stolen from the Axminster area four years ago.

Police in Dorset recently came across it when making an arrest and officers were able to trace the owner thanks to the serial number being listed on the computer.

Anyone who may have information about the shed breaks is asked to call 08452 777 444 and ask for Axminster police.

The incident reference number is KA/10/369.

PROPERTY MARKET UPDATE

What a strange year it has been so far! The country held its breath running up to the election and things in the property market became very slow. Once the new government was installed and began making headlines, things started to move again – especially after the suspension of HIPs. We then had a frantic period of property flooding onto the market and much of that property if priced right and in good locations, has gone under offer. However, the rush to get on the market has slowed down again and many buyers are still looking for their dream home. Most of our buyers at the moment are looking for that perfect property to live in for many years to come and therefore, it has to be right. We have found that property in the right location especially period property (as usual) is selling quickly. So, we now require more character property in East Devon and West Dorset. Condition is not important as long as the other elements are good – reasonable sized garden, good location, character features. If you own such a property and are thinking of selling, please give us a call on 01297 553768 or 01460 30888

New film gives an interesting look at Devon

A film based around Devon and its history, which was shown in part at the Cannes Film Festival, is to be shown in various places throughout the county.

'Day's Devon' started out as an experimental film and evolved into something quite sophisticated. It was made almost single-handedly over a period of three and a half years by Phil Day. During the course of making this film Phil Day discovered a unique way of making a travel film. One that is intriguing, informative, and of almost universal interest.

There are many elements to this - a captivating storytelling style, music video and at least one truly awesome story contained within - a story that has effectively changed the world and one that most people do not know about. Above all the series has an uplifting element - one that leaves the viewer feeling they have been on an enjoyable and informative journey.

Day's Devon will be shown at Dalwood Village Hall on Saturday, August 14th at 7pm, Axminster's Woodbury Hall from 7.30pm on Friday, August 13th; and at The Institute on Yonder Street in Ottery St Mary from 7pm on Friday, August 20th. Further dates will be announced as they are organised.

Put on your ruby shoes

THE Wizard of Oz is coming to Axminster very soon. Dorothy will be flying in from Kansas on Thursday 22nd, Friday 23rd and Saturday, July 24th to The Guildhall, Axminster and you can join her on her trip around the Land of Oz, you can sing with the cute little munchkins, laugh with the scarecrow, cry with the tinman and roar with the lion. And don't forget ladies to wear your ruby slippers.

Axminster Drama Club invites you to come and see this extravaganza and would like all ladies - young and old - to wear red shoes. There will even be a prize for everyone seen wearing red shoes to the show. Tickets can be purchased from Archway Bookshop (tel 01297 33595) prior to each show at reduced price of £8 for adults and £7 for under 16s and OAPs or only £25.00 for a family ticket.

Axminster Arts to hold Craft Fayre in support of local arts and artists

AXMINSTER Arts is continuing with its remit to support the Arts and local artists. On Saturday, July 24th a Craft Fayre is being held in the Courtyard Garden from 10.00am – 2.00pm. There will be twelve stalls run by local artisans and this event forms part of The Arts in the Garden season, with the remaining events scheduled throughout July and August for every Saturday from 11.00am and for the first Wednesday in each month from 12.00noon. Axminster Arts will also be partially subsidising a half-day children's art workshop led by Darrell Wakelam on Thursday, August 12th. The art exhibitions throughout the year have all been well-received and bookings are in place for the next six months. Axminster Arts are thankful to both their staff and their regular customers for helping to make the Arts Café such a success because, without the revenue from the Arts

Café, Axminster Arts would not be able to support the Arts in the way that they do. Information and application forms for all of the above can be obtained from the Arts Café or by contacting Jenny on 01460 220727 or jennyfells@tiscali.co.uk. The Arts Café is situated in the Old Courthouse in Church Street, Axminster EX13 5AQ and is open on Monday to Friday: 9.30am – 4.00pm & Saturday: 9.30am – 2.00pm ▼ VARIED VOCALS: Julie Dunn performing superb latin, blues and jazz vocals with piano as part of the Arts in the Garden programme.

Dowlais Male Voice Choir for Seaton concert

A CONCERT by Dowlais Male Voice Choir will be held at Seaton Town Hall on July 24th.

The Dowlais Male Choir numbers approximately 65 voices. Its members being drawn from an area of about 50 miles around the County Borough of Merthyr Tydfil in the South Wales Valleys.

The Choir has given concerts in no less than 200 different towns and cities and other venues throughout the world. It is a touring choir, whose repertoire extends to some 300 pieces, including both sacred and secular music. Classical composers include Beethoven, Mozart and Schubert.

Also included are folk songs from around the world, songs from stage and screen, popular songs, hymns and male voice favourites. Each concert programme is tailored to the venue and the occasion.

This should prove to be a very enjoyable evening, and we encourage people to book early to avoid disappointment.

A bar service will be available. Tickets at £7.50 each are on sale from Chris Byrne-Jones in the Square at Seaton or telephone Kevin on 01297 24330 (evenings only). Proceeds will, as usual, go to our charitable causes.

Latest generation Audi models take the fear out of filling up

New filler design prevents costly damage to Audi TDI models through accidental fuelling with petrol

- Fuel filler neck in A4, A5 and Q5 TDI models has been redesigned to ensure that it cannot accommodate petrol nozzles
- Internal flap activates nozzle cut-off to prevent fuel delivery and spillage
- Advance will be of particular benefit to companies running vehicle fleets

DRIVERS of 2011 Model Year Audi A4, A5 and Q5 TDI models will no longer have to face the inconvenient and potentially expensive consequences of accidentally filling with petrol thanks to a new preventative system built into the fuel filler neck.

The neck has been redesigned to incorporate contact points that open an internal fuel flap only when the larger diesel pump nozzle applies pressure on them. The smaller diameter petrol nozzles do not make contact, ensuring that the filler flap remains closed to prevent access to the reservoir.

Instances of 'misfuelling' have risen significantly in recent years as an unfortunate bi-product of the dramatic ▲ Fuel-hardy Audi TDIs – The 2011 Model Year Audi A5 TDI, and the A4 and Q5 models that share its platform, feature a new system built into the fuel filler neck that prevents them from being accidentally filled with petrol.

forward strides in refinement made by Audi TDI models, which thanks to high pressure common rail injection technology operate very nearly as smoothly and quietly as their petrol counterparts. This latest advance will of course be of particular interest to companies running vehicle fleets, but it will also provide reassurance for private customers making the switch from petrol, and those who aren't the sole user of their car.

The newly equipped models in the A4, A5 and Q5 family will be joined by further Audi models in the near future as the system is gradually rolled out.

Mind the gap

Motorists are being driven potty by the state of Britain's roads a survey has revealed.

OVER 10 Million motorists have suffered car damage because of potholes, with an average cost of £121 per driver – this adds up to a staggering cost to the nation of over £1.2 BILLION to fix the damage to their vehicles.

The survey, commissioned by Continental Tyres, revealed that one in five drivers have reported a pothole to their local authority, but over half of these said their council had not done anything to fix them.

The research also revealed not only the cost to motorists because of potholes, but also the danger – with over 2 million drivers reporting a near miss with another vehicle or pedestrian due to either hitting a pothole or swerving to avoid one.

One in six report tyre damage caused by potholes – itself a greater risk to road safety.

Roger Sanders, safety expert at Continental Tyres, which questioned 1,500 drivers, commented: "Potholes are an increasing danger on our roads, which has escalated even further following this year's severe winter. The amount of damage caused is a big worry for motorists, especially when it's something that could be avoided.

"Another cause for concern is the fact that over half the respondents neglected to check their tyres after an encounter with a pothole. This is essential as there can be hidden problems such as bulges caused by hitting a pothole, which can later cause the tyre to suffer a catastrophic failure."

On average, motorists reported an astounding four potholes within 100 metres of their house with more than one in five stating there is a pothole close to their home that is dangerous.

More than 80 per cent think the roads have got worse since the beginning of 2009 due to the bad weather.

And the local authorities are doing little to help, with three quarters of motorists unhappy with how the council maintain the roads and 80 per cent feeling they receive poor value for money considering the taxes they pay for road maintenance.

XJ takes market lead in first full month on sale

Sales of the new Jaguar XJ, which arrived in dealers at the end of May, have helped Jaguar to a great sales result for the first half of 2010, along with a strong performance for XF and XK.

In its first full month on sale, the XJ has taken the market lead outselling the Mercedes S Class and BMW 7-Series¹.

Geoff Cousins, Managing Director, Jaguar UK said: "Like the XF, 60 per cent of people that have ordered an XJ are new to the Jaguar brand, with owners of premium German brands proving to be the keenest to buy an XJ. This highlights just how well the XJ has been received among Britain's leading businessmen."

"The modern Jaguar showroom is now complete – with the new XJ joining the XF and XK in UK showrooms during May. We have got off to a great start, with more than 600 new XJs already on the road in the UK and customer deliveries now starting in earnest."

The XF continues to impress with a sales increase of nearly 50 per cent year to date and its thirteenth consecutive month on month improvement. In June 2010 the XF outsold all models of the Audi A6 and BMW 5-series². In the UK, 995 XF were sold in June 2010 compared to 884 the previous year, up 12.6

per cent. For the first half of the year, 6741 XF were sold in the UK up 47.6 per cent from 4567 sales.

Sales of the XK are also up 60.7 per cent in June with 188 cars sold compared with 117 last year. Year to date XK sales improved 22.5 per cent with 926 cars sold compared to 756 in the first six months of 2009. Overall, Jaguar has sold 8309 cars in the UK, a 42.5 per cent improvement on the previous year.³

In the UK, retail pricing of the XF range now starts at £29,900 for the 3.0-litre petrol. The 3.0-litre diesel model is available from £34,900 for the 240 PS engine while the 275 PS 3.0-litre Diesel S starts at £38,600. The top of the range XFR is available from £62,055. The XK range starts at £62,500 for the 5.0 n/a V8 petrol and the XKR starts at £75,500. The new XJ is priced from £53,900. For more information go to www.jaguar.co.uk.

Ford grows retail business in June – caps rental sales

FORD maintained its leadership of the UK vehicle market for the year to the end of June, at the same time as it announced a new pricing strategy across its passenger car range.

Ford Fiesta and Ford Focus are the clear UK best sellers for 2010, in first and second positions, respectively. Ford Fiesta sales totalled 57,508 in the first half of 2010 while Ford Focus sales were 48,314. Ford Fiesta is the firm favourite with retail customers with a total of 31,654 retail sales for the year to date.

During June, according to official figures released today by the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders, Ford was a clear leader in retail car sales, with 10,337 registrations, and in commercial vehicles with 5,447 sales. To maintain the integrity of its business, Ford consciously capped less profitable short-cycle rental business during June, which reduced fleet sales for the month and placed Ford second in terms of overall car sales with 23,716 registrations.

The announcement of a new pricing regime for Ford passenger cars on July 1, which makes the value of Ford cars much more obvious, has resonated well with private customers.

Ford is reducing the official recommended list prices on its medium and small cars from August 2. This follows similar action on Ford's large car range in April. Ahead of the August price changes, dealers will be offering special promotions which mirror the coming lower prices.

Nigel Sharp, managing director Ford of Britain, said: "In June we took an early decision to cap the volume of short-cycle rental business in order to protect the residual values of vehicles bought by fleet and retail customers. The appeal of our best ever vehicle range is reflected in rising retail sales, boosted by our new pricing strategy, which is leading the market in making the whole purchase process more transparent."

Autodata wheel alignment manual will help generate profit

INDUSTRY sources suggest that over 30% of vehicles on the road have front or rear wheel alignment problems leading to premature tyre wear and replacement. It affects not only older vehicles but new cars as well.

To most motorists it is an invisible problem, which can also have safety implications, yet is a potential profit opportunity to garages and workshops.

Autodata, Europe's premier producer of technical information for motor trade professionals, has recently produced an up-dated Wheel Alignment manual providing all the details required for alignment adjustments on over 1500 major models. The latest, expanded manual delivers in the traditional clear and class leading Autodata format, precise and comprehensive information required by technicians to identify, set and adjust vehicle's camber, castor and toe-in, accurately.

The 2010 Wheel Alignment manual, priced at £49.50, covers all mainstream models available in the UK from Alfa Romeo to Volvo and also includes this essential information for vans up to 7.5 tons.

0% interest in the 370z just got interesting...

INTEREST in Nissan's 370Z GT Coupe is about to go sky high – just as the interest rate on the Nissan's finance deal couldn't get any lower.

This offer using Nissan's Preferences (PCP) finance product allows drivers with a 25% deposit to spread the cost of their Z over 2 years with the option (but no obligation) to pay off the remainder of its value after 24 months. With monthly repayments from as low as £299, Nissan fans could be closer to owning their dream model than they think.

Ownership of the 370Z Roadster – complete with fully-electric folding hood – has also become even more tempting. With a deposit of only £8,372 and a monthly payment of £349, drivers can get closer to the action with the top down. For a full breakdown of the finance packages on offer see the table below.

The 370Z punches well above its weight thanks to its front-mounted V6 engine feeding 328PS to the rear wheels. Performance is eye-opening, with the 0-62 mph sprint taking only 5.3 seconds and a top speed of 155mph in reserve. The Z's brute force also comes hand in hand with the latest technology, with world-first Synchro Rev Control automatically blipping the throttle on manual gearbox down changes and Variable Valve

Event and Lift (VVEL) improving low-end power delivery.

As a result, the 370Z has always captivated the sports car community with its ability to out perform its German competitors. Interest in Nissan's Z-car has never been higher, so what better time to lower interest rate on repayments to 0%?

NEWS FROM THE RUNNING CLUBS

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter

IN a rare appearance at the AVR handicap Garry Perratt swept aside the rest and stormed to a win in 20:11, closely followed by Chris Irving, 24:17.

Dave Mutter thought he was in with a chance, but was overtaken just 100 yards from the finish and was 3rd in 27:39. Geoff Woodward is usually spotted on a marathon course, but ended up 4th in 24:55, with Paul Tolchard 5th, 28:13. Chris Irving easily leads the handicap table with 93 points, followed by Alison Gould and Clare Hansford both with 77.

Matthew Morbey was the junior handicap winner in 12:35. Liam McLean was 2nd, 16:55; Jessie Davies 3rd, 17:21; Lydia Clapp 4th, 14:37 and Rosie Hawkins 5th, 16:30. It's very tight at the top of the junior handicap table with James Sibley on 112, Mollie Hansford 111 and Matthew Morbey 103.

Marianne Sweetland completed the 10K Feniton Frolic in 1 hour 3 mins.

On a humid and warm Saturday morning the Otter Valley Rail and River run attracted a total of 116 runners for this year's event. First home was John MacFarlane of Thames Hare & Hounds, who also happens to have won the Grizzly for the last two years, in an amazing time of 37:07.

First AVR home in 44:56 was Phil Bayliss, who won the Male vet 45 trophy in the shape of a full bottle of Otter Bright. The first lady home was our very own Eleanor Wood who used Phil as a pacemaker throughout the race, storming home in 45:09; she was also the first female Vet 50.

The ever improving and ever cheerful Jane Calvert was next home in an impressive 52:02. Two new AVR runners, Chantelle Osborne and Ali Chapman were very pleased to have completed their 10k in 1:11:20 coming in joint 105th.

Harry Moore, who won the Male Vet over 70 prize, completed in 1: 39:00. Well done to the organisers for putting on a most enjoyable race.

Three AVR's had a great day at the Wellington 10; a 10k or a 10 mile race. All three chose the 10k race, as they were chasing PB's and all three were very successful. On a very hot and hilly course Alex Todd lead the AVR gang home, 6th in 37:58, although he should have been 4th or maybe 3rd as a marshal had misrouted him.

Next was a very happy Jon Day, in 12th place taking 40:34. He was chuffed to bits as it was his first 10k in SIX years. Finally in steamed Gavin Warren with a superb sprint finish, 92nd in 53:54 and absolutely delighted to have beaten 55mins. All were Very Glad with their new PB's and a lovely finishers T-Shirt, Oh and the endless supply of Red Bull.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB with Judy Davey

LAST Thursday evening saw the running of the Forde Abbey 10k in the beautiful grounds of this former medieval monastery.

There was a smaller field of runners this year but nevertheless those who took part enjoyed the scenery of this undulating route which also offers two river crossings, one of which you enter by sliding in on your backside and exit up a steep bank with the aid of a rope and a strategically placed hand of a strong marshal. Ed Stahl won the race in a time of 39:51 with Lucy Owen coming 1st lady. Steve Davey was 1st in for Honiton in 39th place in 46:08. Marie Wadey came 70th in 51:11 and Simon Hall 88th in 53:13. Next in 99th place was Sarah Warren in 55:41 and then Claire Pomeroy 116th in 57:54. Brenda spends most of her time in London visiting Honiton occasionally so it was great that she found the time to run Forde Abbey. She was 142nd in 63:44. Vanessa Glyn-Jones came 157th in 67:21. There were 174 runners. The event raised over £1000 for local charities.

The Feniton Frolic is a 6 1/5 mile race which is organised as part of Feniton Fun Day with the help of Honiton Running Club members. Jo Pavey is used to travelling all over the world running and competing at an international level at various distances for Great Britain so it was lovely to have her visit her native village to judge Feniton's Got Talent and to lead the warm up for the race last Sunday. Runners had the privilege of having the race started by Jo too.

Honiton Running Club had a fantastic turnout with 18 members turning out. Fran Bond had a great race coming 4th overall and 1st lady in a time of 46:09. She was followed by Steve Davey who came 8th in 47:15. One place behind him was Ceri Oak, another highly successful Honiton lady who also took a prize for coming 3rd lady in 48:25.

Several brave HRC members also belong to Honiton N1 Tri Club and had got out of bed very early this morning and taken part in a Triathlon at Crewkerne. Vanessa Glyn-Jones had a great morning's event and came 1st in her category. She followed this with a good run at Feniton coming 49th in 1:04:46. Guy Paddon had also completed the Triathlon and came 27th overall at Feniton in 56:17.

Nick Thorpe, although walking fit following his three Peaks' Challenge, hasn't done a lot of running lately so wasn't too hopeful about a fast time. Unfortunately, he was further delayed by coming to the aid of a fellow runner who required medical attention.

He came 40th in 1:01:32. Jude Bassett had only raced once before and she found it harder than the last race so was pleased when she crossed the line. She came 59th in 1:12:19.

Other Honiton runners: 12th Bruce Strawbridge 49:22, 14th Roger Saunders 50:13, 15th Judy Davey 50:28, 17th John Burgess 51:15, 24th Nick Bradley-Carter 53:18, 25th Laura Pyle 55:16, 41st Pete Lyus 1:01:33, 44th Jo Davey 1:03:16, 47th Sandra Thorpe 1:04:13, 58th Blanka Obernik 1:11:15, 69th Sandy Chugg 1:20:27.

There was also a mile fun run for the juniors and Honiton RC's Harry Whiteley came 3rd with Harry Boswell and Isaac Williams also taking part. Isaac had completed the fun run of Charmouth Challenge the day before coming 39th out of 187 which was a great achievement.

Steve Boyes ran the last Tanners 30 at Leatherhead which consisted of 30 miles off road through beautiful Surrey countryside. He was pleased to have only got lost twice which turned his mileage into 32 but he still managed to finish in 6 hours 13 mins.

He said it was a bit hot but great fun and it was brilliant to run the last one as it has been going for 50 years and to top it off there was a bargain entry fee of just £4.

◆ READY FOR THE OFF: The Axe Valley Runners assemble before the start of the Otter Valley Rail and River Run.

Golf round-up

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

Seniors' Section.

ON Tuesday the Seniors recorded their first away win of the season and revenge for an earlier defeat in the Emerton Court Trophy when they beat Torrington at Great Torrington by four matches to two.

The Winning pairings for Axe Cliff included Peter Knighting/Gerry Turner, Mike Tomes/Geoff Tomes, Malcolm Glass/John Mason and Norman Bowles/Phil Christmas.

On Friday the annual competition for the Three Club Shield took place. Unlike similar competitions at other clubs the putter is mandatory in this Seniors' event which makes it all the more challenging.

Rising highest to this test was the ultimate winner John W. White (20) with an astonishing 39 points, four points ahead of runner-up Charles Whitbourn (26), a former winner, who had two twos in his round of 35 points. Alan Vincent (21) was third with 33 points.

On Sunday the main club competed for the July Medal. Winner of Division One with a nett 69 was David Quinn. Second with a nett 70 was Steve Anning. Division Two was won by Robert Gray with a nett 70 and second was B. Simmons with a nett 72.

The Ladies traveled to Westward Ho! on Friday for a league match at Royal North Devon.

The winning player for Axe Cliff was Mary Gippis, hopefully they will achieve a better result on the return match at home. Despite this lovely sunny weather the monthly Stableford was abandoned due to thick fog.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

Monthly Medal

The wanderer returns. Years ago, when I first joined the club, we had, amongst a wealth of talented juniors, one particularly cheeky lad, Matt Bond, who just loved to be out playing golf.

As is the way of the world he had to go out and seek his fortune and curtail his cheekiness. Well he has done all of that, except lose the cheekiness, and Matt has returned to the club of his birth with a two handicap no less.

He declared that he had returned in order to get his handicap up, Honiton being a sterner challenge with its tighter fairways than his last club, but I watched in awe as he began to pick the course apart in meticulous fashion. Where as in his youth Matt would pick his clubs without thinking, don't we all, he now weighed up distance, wind speed and terrain with unerring accuracy before choosing to play his shots.

But throughout the round he treated the game in the perfect manner, light and breezy with his conversation and generous with praise of his partners best efforts, though he thought his recording of a five on the last to have been beyond the pale.

So, far from getting his handicap up Matt recorded a net 69 to win the day in Division One ahead of J Fleetwood's 73 and D Richards 77. Division Two had D Bonetta take first prize with a stunning net 64 with R Hill second with a 66 and F Thomas third with a 68.

Mixed Section

A SMALL field played this week due to holidays and other commitments.

The format was Greensomes Stableford and the winners with 37pts on count back were Barbara Eastwood and Paul Witton.

Second, losing out on the back nine, were Christine Whitley and Cyril Dann. In 3rd place with 36pts were Dot Grove and Roger Pincombe.

Ladies Section

THE Monthly Stableford incorporated the Warren Crocus this week.

The Silver winner of the Warren Crocus was Tricia Swindell with 36 pts and runner up was Henrietta Bradshaw with 33pts.

The Bronze Winner Hilda Hoepelman 38pts and runner up with 32pts Sue Norman. Therefore Tricia and Henrietta will represent the Club for the Silver and Hilda and Sue for the Bronze in the 4BBB which will be played at Dawlish Warren at a later date.

The Stableford winner in the Silver Division was Past Lady Captain Sue Selway with 38 pts. 2nd - 36pts on c/b - Chris Pearce.

Bronze 1 Division winner with 41 pts on c/b - Joan Smith. 2nd also 41pts. Linda Blundell.

Bronze 2 Division winner 35pts on c/b Betty Weedon. 2nd also 35pts Anne Verplanke. 3rd - 34pts on c/b Majson Stroud.

Senior Section

AS a change from the normal Stableford and Medal competitions 69 Seniors took part in a novelty "Yellow Ball" competition.

Although this is a fun event it does have a sting in its tail. Teams of three compete in a Stableford format but one player on each hole has the "Yellow Ball", this score is doubled but if he fails to score nobody scores.

It causes some trepidation when your turn for the yellow ball arises - can I keep it in play and also manage nothing worse than a net bogey!

The threesome of Bob Underwood, Keith Thomas and Howard Pritchard had no such fears amassing a total of 159 points to take first place, thanks in no small part to 2 pars and a birdie on the 12th hole.

Second were Bill Spice, Barry Kemp and Alan Bacon with 150 points just beating John Fleetwood, Jack Phillips and John Ward on count back. Fourth place went to John Chew, Adrian Williams and Steve Blundell with 148 points.

This event also brought out a rash of two's with no less than 11 on four different holes.

A return home match against Downes Crediton was also played this week with the away team winning four and a half to two and a half to complete the double over Honiton. Time for the Captain to crack the whip.

LYME REGIS

with Steve Percival

CONGRATULATIONS to David Lock, Lyme Regis GC, for winning the SWCGA Seniors Championship on a hilly Lanhydrock course.

David was not planning to play as he was recovering from a knee injury but the hero he is standing in at the last minute for John Nash who was taken ill at the Kent match and is still recovering.

David had a steady 74 on the first day and a real shaky start to his second but all he was interested in was ensuring he kept a respectable card for the team competition.

His 71 and 145 total was enough to tie the lead with Gloucestershire's David Potter who scored a 71 & 74, so it was down to a play off and on the first a great sand save was enough to give David the title. As can be seen in the photo, where he is receiving his well earned trophy, David was still in total shock at his achievement.

The Dorset team will be going to this year's EGU Seniors County finals at on the home course of Ferndown.

Every player in the Dorset side broke 80 in both rounds, the only team to do so and this ensured the team won through with a very good 736 total six shots clear of their nearest rivals Gloucestershire who had 742.

The sound performance from all ensured the team picked up the coveted prize and Dorset will of course do their utmost in representing the SW Counties at the National final again.

Cricket round-up

AXMINSTER TARGET TOP FOUR FINISH

AXMINSTER CRICKET CLUB

with Phil Speng

1st XI

AXMINSTER skipper Paul Miller won the toss and decided to bat first against visitors Bideford, a side who have yet to win a game.

A useful opening partnership of 55 between Tristan Wakeley (63) and Michael Wakley (16) provided the basis for good total and further runs from David Murnane (22) and Paul Miller pushed the total to 161 with 11 overs left. Following the dismissal of David Murnane, Robbie Prior and Paul added 96 in those remaining overs.

Miller ended on 61 not out and Prior was dismissed in the last over for a well struck 61 including four sixes and five fours. Chasing the total of 262 the visitors found runs easy to come by until the introduction of Alex Wraight (3-50) and Nick Taylor.

It was Wraight who made the initial breakthrough bowling Matt Allin for 22 before having Mike Wigley brilliantly caught at slip by Tristan Wakeley. With the home side struggling somewhat to take wickets it was Alex Rockett who broke a useful partnership when he had the high scoring James Ford caught on the long off boundary for 70.

Miller then dismissed Chris Luxton (50) before reintroducing Prior (2-47) in an attempt to complete a victory but the visitors had no difficulty in batting out for a draw.

Axminster pick up a useful 151 points and are confident enough to consider they could now finish in the top four of the division.

2nd XI

The second team had the long trip to Bideford and found the opposition too strong.

Bideford batted first and with Corry (82), Crisp (44) and a late flurry from no 9 Barrett (48 not out) they ended on 272 all out.

Alan Ostler had a good day with the ball ending with 5-39 in ten overs, an excellent return in the circumstances. Only Paddy Barroclough with 31, held up the inevitable although Ottery proved his all round ability remaining 16 not out as Axminster were all out for 87.

3rd XI

MARK Enticott, having won the toss asked Kentisbeare to bat, found his side chasing a total of 274 at the interval.

G Farley (86) and D Squire(79) shared a partnership of 150 and only John Swain with 3-18 in a late three over spell came away with any respectable figures. Colin Leadbetter (24), supported by Steve Wakley (41) and then Mark Enticott (32) took the score to 126 but with neither able to go on to greater things the innings subsided and Axminster were dismissed a hundred runs short. J Wingrove (5-35) was the best of the Kentisbeare bowlers.

The third team, now adrift at the bottom of the league will be hoping the return of Ian Barwick and Josh Singleton will make amends to results over the next few weeks.

4th XI

Game cancelled - Axminster could not raise a side.

Axminster Ladies 146 for 3 beat Torquay Ladies 58 all out

AXMINSTER won the toss and elected to bat and the started rapidly but Hannah Singleton was bowled for 9 and Kes Wakeley wasn't far behind for bowled for 11.

So with only 30 runs on the board upsteepped Sophia Brown and Emily Broad and they put on a magnificent 100 partnership with Brown hitting her first ever 50 for the club and she never gave any chances in the whole innings.

On paper the bowling line up was probably the best that Axminster had put out this season. Hannah Singleton bowled superbly and was rewarded with a wicket in her very first over when Sue Brown took a great catch behind the stumps.

But this was a great all round performance by Axminster, even birthday girl and debutant Lorraine Szczepanski took a wicket.

The wicket takers were Singleton 3-20, Broad 2-7, Szczepanski 1-8 and Katie Jones 3-5.

Honiton 1st XI v

Yarcombe & Stockland 1st XI

HONITON skipper Neil pulman won the toss and elected to bat,

But things didn't go to plan and Honiton were in trouble at 38 for three. But Cave (58), Tansley (43) and Rampaul (23) saw the hosts finish on 203.

Honiton took to the field and opened with the usual pairing of Holmes and Tansley. After 11 overs the breakthrough came with Durrant wafting at one off Holmes and edging to Meadows. Yarcombe's other opening Rich was however in belligerent mood cracking a hard-hitting 93 with the scoreboard showed 174 for 7 and the match in the balance with Yarcombe needing 30 with 14 overs remaining.

Tansley the struck twice to leave to the score on186 for 9 and Holmes clean bowled Barnes to wrap it up. Kelly (5-51) was the most successful of the Honiton attack.

Honiton 2nd XI v

Tiverton & Bickleigh 2nd XI

SKIPPER Andrew Lapping's decision to bat first on a lively looking track backfired as his side lurched to 5 for 4. Several Honiton players were grimly considering the possibilities of the unwelcome publicity which would surely follow, were they to get into the record books for the wrong reasons.

Fortunately, Lapping and Jaworski entertained no such thoughts, taking the attack to the Tiverton bowlers with some no-nonsense big hitting.

Jaworski, having compiled a cameo 14 was bowled by a short delivery which scuttled under his blade. Lapping, however continued his attack, cudgeling six fours and two sixes in a humiliation-avoiding 37.

Following Lapping's departure at 65-6, Brinsford and Tom Cligg.

Added useful runs and Honiton were all out for 143, with Brinsford top scoring on 53 with 11 fours.

In reply, Tiverton got to 30 before Lapping had Carpenter taken at silly mid off.

Hill had Schofield plumb in front for 35 to make it 113-3 and give Honiton a final flimsy straw to grasp. But Tiverton eased home by seven wickets, leapfrogging the Hatters to move up to third place in the league.

Three ladies triples beat Axminster Ladies on July 9th on the artificial surface by 67 shots to 37. Top triples were; Alice Carter, Shirley Fewtrell and Barbara Harden.

We then entertained a team from the City & Port of Bristol on July 10th and won by 117 shots to 112. Top rink was; Alan Cook, Roy Young, Marian Vessey and Barbara Harden.

Seaton men beat Phear Park in all five games played in the Top Club match on July 1st. In the Over 60s Triples League match on July 7th against Uffculme B Seaton continued their winning streak by 55 shots to 20.

Top triples were David Ford, Roy Carnell and Roger Woolland.

Seaton are top of their league by a handsome margin.

HONITON with Tony Broughton
THE Honiton Ladies continue to impress with another win in the Double Rink Inter Club competition.

Yvonne Rayner, Carole Binmore, Brenda Harris and Sue Evans accompanied by Rosemary Hiron, Rita Barwick, Ann Hillyear and Shirley Hiscocks won on both rinks against a tough Hemyock side played at Cullompton on what is rare this year, a wet evening.

They will play Feniton in the next round.

All three sides played the Over 60s League this week.

The A side were home to Pines Gardens B and won one and lost one. John Bryan, Dick Summers and Mike Saunders seem to be the main stay of this side with regular wins.

The B side were away at Dunkswell and lost both rinks, again by the smallest margins. Tony Broughton's trio, after being 2-15 down fought back to go into the last end 16-16 only to drop lone shot. Ken Morfe, Brian Long and Peter Baker lost by seven.

The C side played second-place side, Pines Gardens A at home and needed to win. Unfortunately the wheels fell off and they lost on both rinks. One down by three the other by four.

The eight points gained by Pines, whom were only six behind us in the League Table, will now put them top and us second.

With seven matches still to play this season it looks to be a nail-biting run to the end.

Friday four rinks travelled up to Bridgwater and were beaten by 10 shots. Our highest winning rink was Roger Willcocks, Anne Newman, Ken Clarke and Brenda Harris at 25-12.

Sunday morning the ladies played Sidmouth at Honiton in the Grace Mathews Top Club. This is a five discipline competition and the first to finish was Rosemary Hiron in the two wood singles with a 15-9 win with two ends to play.

Next Carole Binmore won the four wood 21-11. Yvonne Rayner and Shirley Hiscocks were 33-5 up in the Pairs with two ends to play when Sidmouth conceded.

The same happened in the Triples where Chris Nex, Brenda Harris and Ann Hillyear were 21-8 with two to play.

The fours, Hannah Morfe, Jean Mitchell, Dulcie Broughton and Joan Heard seemed to take their eye off of the ball for a second and on the eighteenth end and dropped a seven to go 15-20.

At this point Sidmouth again conceded. Hannah was quick to point out to me that it was her bowl that stopped Sidmouth getting eight.

◆ TONY Kury runner-up in the Feniton Mens handicap competition

In the afternoon we entertained a seven-rink side from Southall, West London.

The weather was good, the company good and we managed to win 151-139. It was a bit cruel for Keith Parsons, Gina Morfe, Pat Trembeth and Owen Cleverdon to take advantage and win 43-5 on their rink but one on ours lost by a similar amount to even things up a bit.

Sue Evans did the Club and County proud to get through to the final of the South West Champion of Champions at Topsham.

At 16 all it looked to be anybody's match but Amy Stanton from Somerset just seemed to get the upper hand when it counted to come out the 21-16 winner. Nevertheless, well done Sue.

Division Two promotion race goes down to the wire

THE Honiton Summer Netball League reached its exciting conclusion this week with three teams in each division still in with a chance of a top two spot finish writes Graham Ingram – and with the top spot still up for grabs – what a nail biter it turned out to be in the division two promotion race.

Division One

Wasps 45 Flamingos B 13, Keeley's Angels 36 Flamingos A 26, Visions 42 Sidmouth Toucans 13, Uplowman 29 Bo-Peeps 34.

THE race for the top spots was still open as the evening started, with Keeley's Angels, Flamingos A and Wasps all in with a chance. The twist was that Angels were playing Flamingos and were defending their 100 percent record, whilst Flamingos A and Wasps had both lost once.

The Angels v Flamingos A started evenly and was a close affair so that only three goals separated the teams at the start of the final quarter – with Angels leading 24-21.

With Sharon Chester playing well they upped their game to finish winners by 36-26 to clinch the title despite good work from Sarah Clark. Whilst this action was going on Wasps were up against already relegated Flamingos B and needed a win to stand a chance of a top two finish.

Although they started the game with only five players, up to full strength in the second quarter, they were too strong for Flamingos B and ran out comfortable winners by 45-13 to claim the second spot. Players of the night were Sasha Williams for Wasps and Poppy Williams for the Flamingos B.

Bo-Peeps and Uplowman had both flirted with relegation they both started today knowing that a point would make them safe whilst Toucans, who were playing Visions needed a big win to ensure security.

As it was, Bo-Peeps finished their season with their third win in a row when they beat Uplowman 34-29 in a close game. Once again the dynamic Faye Webb was their start whilst Julie heak shone for Uplowman.

'Visions were in a commanding mood when they came up against the Sidmouth Toucans and their slim chances of remaining in the top flight were soon dashed as they tumbled to a 42-13 defeat at the hands of the 'Visions for whom Megan Tinsley had an outstanding game whilst it was Kristy Platt who caught the eye for Sidmouth.

Division Two

Bampton 35 Lyme Bay 10, Tip Top Trees Acorns 51 CMC Birds 8, Complete Meats 24 Tip Top Trees Oaks 29, JD Tyres 22 NAS 29.

THE race for promotion from division two was too close to call with both Tip Top Trees teams, Oaks and Acorns, in with a strong chance, whilst Bampton were also in the promotion mix. If all three teams won then it would come down to goal difference.

The evening started with Oaks holding the top spot, Bampton in second and Acorns in third – all of them on 16 points. Oaks had the toughest game on paper ending their season against Complete Meats, a team that had started out as one of the promotion favourites.

Bampton were up against Lyme Bay whilst Acorns faced CMC Birds. The other game of the night saw the improving NAS Vehicle Repairs side defeat JD Tyres in a close game by 29-22 thanks to some fine play from Sam Ayres, with Amy Philips doing well for JD.

At the top Bampton got off well to lead Lyme Bay 11-1 at quarter time. With Sarah Robinson in fine form they didn't look back and despite good play from Gina Wooderson they finished victors by 35-10 to secure the three points they needed. Their fate was now in the hands of the Trees!

Oaks had a tougher time against Complete Meats, who have had a disappointing season by their own standards but they did enough to gain the three points from their 29-24 win thanks to Emma Truscott's fine play at centre, whilst Jo Blackmore was in good form for Meats at WA. After these two games Bampton were in pole position with a goal difference of +113, whilst Oaks had one of +105.

Bampton were thus assured of promotion but the fate of the Oaks depended upon the Acorns and CMC. Tip Top Trees Acorns needed to win, and win well to gain a promotion spot and my it turned out to be a close run thing.

Ashley Logan once again played well for CMC but it was Acorns night thanks to a great performance from the team and Zoe Spiller in particular as they ran out winners by 51-8 giving them a goal difference of +106 - promotion was theirs by a single goal.

Honiton Summer Hockey

Sophie's double can't save Hornets

The second year of Honiton's seven-a-side Summer League came to a most enjoyable conclusion on Tuesday evening with brilliant weather and friendly, competitive hockey being played with a meal out and presentations afterwards.

Three matches were played. The first was to decide the final placings with a Wooden Spoon as the trophy. First up Ottery Cricketsbeat Chard 3-0.

The second game of the evening featured the other local side in the tournament: Honiton who were pitched against Exeter Culm Vale Hornets. The Mid-Devon side were the first to score, quickly followed by Honiton's Sophie George who picked up a penalty corner pass and slammed it home. Culm Vale rose to the challenge and added their next goal. Playing catch-up Becky Bond swept the ball across the circle to waiting Jean Herniman, who in her turn made no mistake in connecting it with the backboard.

Once again Culm pressed into the Honiton circle and added a third. Not to be outdone George once again went into the attack; and taking the ball with her round a number of defenders managed to work her way into the circle once again before equalising.

Two more goals were scored in the final five minutes, but sadly these were not by Honiton; so the 3rd place went to Culm with Honiton 4th.

The final game of the evening was between Okehampton and Newton Abbot and the end result was a deceiving win to last years' winners – so they retain the trophy carrying it back with them to the borders of Dartmoor – were Okehampton 4-1.

FOOTBALL NEWS

Seaton Town 3rds fold

WHIPTON & Pinhoe, who have played in the Exeter and District Sunday League since the club's formation in 1982, have joined the Devon and Exeter Saturday League for the 2010-11 campaign and will now run teams on Saturdays and Sundays.

Bryan Howard, along with Darren Seaton, takes over the running of the Saturday side in Division Five, while Matt Dare and Ben Howard will be in charge of the Sunday team in the Premier Division.

Training kicks off on Saturday at Hamlin Lane (2.00 pm), and players new and old are welcome.

For details, call club secretary Bryan Howard on Exeter (01392) 461 535 or 07940 711 036.

◆ Clyst Valley have been awarded the Devon and Exeter

League's Bill Rees Sportsman'ship Shield.

Teams are points are awarded by Premier Division referees during the course of a season - and the table for the 2009-10 campaign table is as follows:

◆ Premier Division sportsman'ship table: 1, Clyst Valley (81.3 points); 2, Budleigh Salterton (80.1); 3, Otterton (78.3); 4, University of Exeter (78.1); 5, Hatherleigh Town (78.0); 6, Wellington Town (77.9); 7, Newtown (77.8); 8, Alphington (77.6); 9, Feniton (76.0), 10, Topsham Town (75.8); 11, Thorverton (75.6); 12, Willand Rovers (73.9); 13, Sidmouth Town (71.6); 14, St Martins (69.1); 15, Heavitree Social United (67.7); 16, Exmouth Amateurs (66.3).

◆ Seaton Town have withdrawn their third team from all competitions for the coming campaign.

The club have struggled for years with just one pitch in Seaton, and the thirds have played their home games at Sidford, which is the best part of ten miles away from Colyford Road.

They have tried unsuccessfully to find a pitch closer to Seaton but, as many members of the third team live around Axminster, several have decided to join clubs in that area.

Town, whose first team gained promotion back to the Premier Division last term, felt it better to act now rather than risk causing greater problems once the season gets under way.

PAST CHAMPS LOCKED IN BATTLE

THE NICHOLSON MCLAREN BRITISH SPEED HILL CLIMB CHAMPIONSHIP at Wiscombe Park (near Southleigh Devon.)

There looks certain to be a scintillating weekend of speed hill climbing at Wiscombe Park as the latest state-of-the-art hillclimb technology and the country's best drivers attack the Devon hill on July 24th and 25th.

The country's premier hillclimb series, the Nicholson McLaren British Hillclimb championship comes to Devon with a battle for the lead which just could not be any closer fought. To date there have been eighteen rounds throughout the British Isles, from Scotland to the Channel Islands and the two main protagonists are locked in a titanic battle. Prior to the four events in the Channel Islands former triple champion Martin Groves has a tenuous advantage of three points from the reigning champion Scott Moran from Ludlow. As the drivers prepare for the challenges of the south Devon course, which is considered to be technically challenging to drive, Martin Groves from Wendlebury in the Midlands prepares to repel the retaliation from the reigning champion whos performances were strong at the beginning of the season.

The series only visits the south west's premier hillclimb course at Wiscombe Park once during the season and both Moran and Groves, along with their challengers, should prove devastatingly quick in their state of the art Formula One like single seater Goulds and will not only be fighting each other but bidding for a new hill record should track conditions allow. A number of records have already been re-written at other courses earlier this season.

Although the focus of attention will be on these ultimate machines, laden with Formula One technology, there will be a huge supporting cast of saloon and sports cars. Included in an entry will be competitors contesting classes for saloon and sports cars in addition to the vintage Austin Sevens and Westfield sports cars.

A number of Woolbridge Motor Club members will be in action at the meeting to do battle with the best in the country. Amongst those will be Frampton husband and wife team Rod and Hayley Thorne. Rod will campaign the mighty five-litre Pilbeam MP43 sports car as usual with fellow villager Colin Pook sharing the driving duties.

Meanwhile Hayley, new to speed hill climbing this season, will be doing battle in the competitive Road Going Specialist Sports Car category at the wheel of her 1800 c.c. Westfield SEi. Another Westfield SEi crewed by local drivers will be that of Graham and Geoff Blake. There previous mount now in the hands of Hayley Thorne the Weymouth father and son pairing have acquired a higher specification ex-circuit racing machine with which to continue their challenge. After the inevitable teething problems the car is now better set-up for hill climbs events but the duo will have stern opposition in the form of Neal Coles motorcycle engine Sylvia Riot R1.

In the Modified Specialist Production car category Weymouth driver Michael Willgoss will return from the Channel Islands having competed at the four British Championship events in the Channel Islands in his turbo-charged four wheel drive Ford Escort Cosworth. With two rounds at Bouley Bay on Jersey and then another brace of runs at Val des Terres in Guernsey the week prior to Wiscombe the Willgoss schedule, as with all the main championship protagonists, is busy.

Further local drivers include Weymouth's Lee Orridge with his Honda Integra 'Type R' in the Road Going Series Production category and Robert Rhodes from Bridport who will be contesting the Pre-War Austin Seven class in his road going example. There will be an additional division for cars prepared for the track.

Gates open for the practice runs at 10.00 on both Saturday and Sunday with the all important championship runs commencing on Sunday morning. The meeting is scheduled to be completed by 17.30.

Admission: Saturday £6. Sunday: £9. Special Weekend ticket: £12. Accompanied children under 14 FREE. Car Parking FREE. Transfer to the competitor's enclosure FREE. Catering and licenced bar available.

Wiscombe Park is situated north of Blackberry Camp and south of Farway Park. Follow the AA signs from Honiton and on the A3052. For more Wiscombe information go to www.wiscombepark.co.uk.
